The successful candidate will have a track record in Venue Management and operations and a comprehensive knowledge of health & safety policies and regulations in a theatre or public building environment.

This role is required to work at The Point, Eastleigh and The Berry Theatre, Hedge End as well as occasional external festival locations across Eastleigh Borough. Please note that some evening and weekend working is an integral part of the job.

About The Point and The Berry Theatre

Based in the heart of Eastleigh, The Point is a regional powerhouse for contemporary dance, aerial and circus, theatre and combined arts. We specialise in programming risk-taking contemporary performance. Our programme of professional dance, theatre, comedy and film attracts the very best British and international artists to the region.

Placing audiences at the heart of everything we do, our work enriches lives through inspirational experiences created to move you physically and emotionally.

Through creative residencies in our world-class Creation Space and through our trail-blazing Associate Artist programme, we support artists to develop new work and reach new audiences.

Engaging thousands of participants each year, we develop talent, raise aspirations and inspire the next generation; developing Eastleigh as a creative community.

The Berry Theatre presents inspirational work for children and families alongside hand-picking the very best productions from across the UK from theatre to film, live screens and comedy. The venue also has a busy Youth Theatre and runs a range of outreach work.

Our work

We reach audiences of over 57,000 each year and across both venues present a broad performance programme of dance, theatre, circus, comedy, family work, music and a diverse programme of community focused showcases as well as supporting our community of hirers.

The Point is an Arts Council England National Portfolio Organisation where funding is directed to our artist development, commissioning and festival work. We have an excellent reputation for both talent development, working with young people in dance and theatre, and artist development through our Associate Artist, @HOME programmes as well as a packed residency programme in our creation space and accommodation. Since the opening of this unique facility in 2009, we have enabled over 200 companies to make new work, as well as nurturing over 35 emerging associate companies to become sustainable businesses.

Arts engagement is at the heart of what we do. Over 20,000 people engage in our activity each year and we have several youth groups working in dance and theatre as well as programmes that focus on health and wellbeing and those with physical and learning difficulties. We are an Arts Award training organisation working closely with our Arts Council bridge organisation ArtsWork to deliver high quality arts projects in schools, as well as in the wider Borough of Eastleigh.

The Point and The Berry Theatre are owned and managed by Eastleigh Borough Council. There are eight areas of Arts and Culture Provision delivered at and from both venues:

The provision consists of eight specific programmes:

- Professional performances
- Professional artists development programme
- Start-up provision for emerging artists and creative businesses
- Community and commercial hire programme
- Education engagement programme
- Arts Development programme offering accessible participation across the Borough
- Festival programme
- Café/Bars and Events Programme

Our reason for being

We believe in the transformative power of the arts to enhance and change lives. Increasingly, the arts is being marginalised in educational settings where our young people need it most to be able to express themselves creatively and emotionally. Our programme of performances and participation at The Point is driven by our mission Moving You, where a visit to the building will guarantee a long lasting, unforgettable experience. The Berry Theatre is the place to have a great night out, where we enjoy telling the best stories.
